UPCOMING VACCIBUS AND MOBILE CLINICS

Gatineau, July 21 2021 – The Vaccibus of the Centre intégré de santé et de services sociaux (CISSS) de l'Outaouais is in festive mode as part of the Covid-19 vaccination campaign. Indeed, the Vaccibus will travel to various popular locations in the region during the summer.

The population of the Outaouais will be able to be vaccinated in different locations, for the 1st and 2nd dose (Moderna or Pfizer), with or without an appointment. Here are the next dates for the Vaccibus:

- July 24 – 11 am to 7:30 pm : Encan Larose, 110 Georges Street, Masson-Angers, Gatineau
- July 29 – 5 pm to 11 pm : Laval Street, Downtown Hull, Gatineau
- August 4 – 9 am to 5 pm : Gatineau Airport (parking), Gatineau

In addition, mobile clinics will be set up in the Pontiac region:

- July 22 – 10 am to 5:30 pm : CLSC de Rapides des Joachims, 48a de l'Église Street, Rapides des Joachims
- July 26 – 9 am to 4:30 pm : Community centre of Quyon, 2 Ferry Road, Quyon
- August 2 – 10 to 5 pm : Harrington Hall, 64 Pembroke Road, Isle-aux-Allumettes

Finally, the organization would like to invite anyone who has not yet received their first or second dose of vaccine to come to the vaccination sites, mobile clinics or the various Vaccibus stops. A complete schedule is available on the CISSS de l'Outaouais website.
